Charles T Horngren Management Accounting Pioneer 1926

Horngren was credited with changing traditional accounting education in the 1960s "from cost accounting's overwhelming emphasis on accumulation and calculation of product costs to managerial accounting, which explores the uses of costs for various purposes," wrote Thomas Burns, a professor at Ohio State University and chairman of the Accounting

Strategic analysis of operating income an extension to

1. Introduction. In the 10th edition of their Cost Accounting text, Horngren, Foster, and Datar (2000, pp. 470 477) (hereafter, HFD) split the change in a company's operating income over 2 years into three components: growth, price-recovery and productivity, thereby extending the efforts of Hansen and Mowen (2000) who split the changes in a company's contribution margin over 2 years into the
