INDIGENOUS PEOPLES For well over a century claims have been advanced that Native Americans, and indigenous peoples in general, are about to vanish (Bodley 1990, 1994; Dippie 1982). Apparently, however, indigenous peoples have neither read nor followed these scripts. In fact, quite the opposite has occurred. A New Version of History SpringerLink

Abstract. The new version of history presented in this book is indeed not new, but one that has been repressed and, for the most part, has only recently been publicly revealed. The history of the West Indian is neither brief, nor is colonialism the very base and structure of the West Indian cultural awareness, as has been said. 2 The story of the indigenous Caribbean is
